Article 632 of the Mysore Service Regulations regulates the allowances permissible to officers proceeding to Mysore for the Dasara and Birthday functions and Clause (f) of this Article, as amended by slip No.45, provides for the daily allowance of officers during the period covered by the Dasara and Birthday celebrations including the days during which the Economic Conference is held.

2. But in connection with halts for more than 10 days under Article 582, exemption is allowed only for the periods covered by the Dasara and the Birthday festivities and no mention is made as regards the days during which the Economic Conference is held.

3. This was brought to the notice of the Government by the Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldrug, and it is now proposed to issue an agenda and corrigenda explaining that the term "Birthday festivities" in Article 582 includes also the sittings of the Economic Conference.

4. The accompanying draft agenda and corrigenda may be approved.

In acknowledging the receipt of amendment slip No. 45 dated 6th April 1912, I have the honor to state that under Article 632 A (f) as now amended by the above slip provision is made for drawing daily allowances for the period covered by the Economic Conference also. But in connection with halts for more than 10 days under article 582, note 3 clause (1) exception is only allowed for the period covered by the Dasara functions and the Birthday Festivities at Mysore and no mention is made as regards the days during which the Economic Conference is held. Provision for this also appears to be necessary.
